EMPLOYMENT / CONTRACT PROFILE

CURRENTLY SEEKING LOCAL WORK IN KOKOMO • ALSO AVAILABLE FOR DEPLOYMENT

XGEN General Services LLC is my Florida-registered single-member LLC, established so I can work either as a direct employee or as an insured independent contractor for a defined project or assignment. I am open to local employment, project-based work, temporary operations support, and domestic or international assignments. Business registration, insurance, and tax credentials are available upon request or at xgenservices.net/identity.

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Practical operations professional with 25+ years of experience building businesses, managing kitchens and venues, coordinating events, leading field crews, and solving real-world logistical problems. Strongest in assignments that require someone to arrive early, organize the site, establish workable systems, support incoming teams, keep operations moving, and remain through transition or closeout.

PROJECT SUPPORT CAPABILITIES

- Event, site, and temporary-facility setup for weddings, public events, field teams, mobile kitchens, camps, and support operations.
- Operational logistics: purchasing, inventory, vendors, transport, equipment, scheduling, staffing, and day-of execution.
- Field liaison and professional representative for clients, contractors, local teams, and organizational leadership.
- Hands-on implementation support that helps teams adopt new procedures and operational standards through direct example.
- Advance work, startup support, workflow stabilization, transition, pack-down, and assignment closeout.
